

Green Screen Photography Waiver Form

This document is intended to be a waiver that you have been advised that green screen photography may or may not be practical for all events and that you have made a decision to utilize this technology after being advised of the possible problems that can prevent this technology from working properly at your event.

Houston Event Photography is not to be held responsible if this technology does not work due to the following reasons.

Houston Event Photography shall not be responsible if:

Inadequate Space To Set Up Green Screen Backdrop and Lighting (We need at least 10'x10' and prefer 10'x20') Green Screen Requires The Subject Be Placed At Least 4-5 Feet Off The Backdrop

Inadequate Electrical Service for Set Up (Two -120 Volts @ 20 AMPS Minimum Outlets)

Open Spacing or Unprotected Spacing (Outdoors or in a tent where wind, sun, rain or other inclement weather may cause problems with our set up, lighting or equipment)

Equipment Failure Due to Unforeseen Problems on Location

House Lighting That May Interfere With Our Lighting That Can Not Be Turned Off or Controlled

Color Cast That May Be Caused By House Lighting

Clients or Participants That Wear Colors Similar To Our "Key" Color of Florescent Green

Color Fringing or Floating Head Which Is Characteristic To Green Screen Photography Technology

Unforeseen Problems with the Location

In most case green screen photography performs flawlessly but on rare occasions these problems come up. We always counsel our clients about these problems prior to an event but we must advise you that these are potential problems we have encountered during our years of experience. We always try to make the technology work the way it is intended but certain unforeseen problems do occasionally happen which make green screen not work or perform properly.

By signing this waiver you are stating that you understand the problems which can occur using green screen photography technology and that you are agreeing to waive Houston Event Photography from any liability if Houston Event Photography cannot provide you with green screen photography for any of the above reasons and that you understand that Houston Event Photography expects payment in full for the contracted and agreed upon amount in your contract regardless of whether the job is completed or not.

I agree with the above terms and conditions:
